Dear Scout Leader or 2006 Eagle Scout:

You are cordially invited to attend the 2007 Unaka District Leaders' and Eagle Scout Banquet on Thursday, February 8, 2007 at 6:30 p.m. at Allen Memorial United Methodist Church in Athens. The cost for the evening for all leaders and Eagle parents is $11.00 each, which includes your meal and all awards. Cost at the door will be $16.00 each. Our 2006 class of Eagle Scouts will be our honored guests, and eat free of charge.

Our banquet will be based on a medieval theme. I am asking everyone who has one to assist in this theme by bringing your own framed coat-of-arms of your family names. It should be interesting to see the different designs!

Highlights of the evening will be the presentation of our newest Eagles, as well as awards to the adults in Scouting. In addition, the winners of the District Award of Merit, the highest volunteer recognition given at the district level, will be announced.

Please return the reply card here no later than February 1st to:
